Expiration Date: April 05, 2010

COMPLIANCE IS MANDATORYPrintable Format \(PDF\)

Subject: Release and Management of Audiovisual Products and Services

Responsible Office: News & Multimedia Division

1. Policy

It is NASA policy to:

- a. encourage the prompt, complete, and effective distribution of information about its activities and the results of these activities.
- b. limit the use of proprietary or copyrighted materials so that NASA's visual imagery is freely available to the public.
- c. protect all NASA public affairs audiovisual resources commensurate with the risk and magnitude of harm that could result from the loss, misuse, or unauthorized access to or modification of such resources.

2. Applicability

- a. This directive applies to NASA Headquarters and NASA Centers, including Component Facilities.
- b. For purposes of this NPD, the following definitions apply:
 - (1) Audiovisual Product: material containing visual imagery, with or without sound, used to convey information about NASA activities. Examples include photographs, videotapes, and motion picture footage and discs.
 - (2) Audiovisual Service: function performed in the production, reproduction, utilization, distribution, and storage of an audiovisual product. Included are scripting, photography, film processing, digital production and distribution, videotape transfer, tape or film editing, audiovisual media depository and records center operations, and support and maintenance of audiovisual equipment and facilities.

3. Authority

- a. 42 U.S.C. 2473(a)(3) and 2473(c)(1), Sections 203(a)(3) and 203(c)(1) of the National Aeronautics and Space Act of 1958, as amended.
- b. OMB Circular A-130, "Management of Federal Information Resources."

4. References

- a. NPD 1440.6E, "NASA Records Management."
- b. NPR 1441.1C, "NASA Records Retention Schedules."

5. Responsibility

- a. The Assistant Administrator for Public Affairs or designee(s) implements and manages this directive.
- b. The Director, News and Multimedia Division, NASA Headquarters is responsible for the following:
 - (1) Overseeing and monitoring audiovisual activities within respective area (s).
 - (2) Establishing an internal review process to avoid duplication and ensure merit, as well as to ensure adherence to OMB circulars, prior to production.
 - (3) Establishing processes to ensure control, dissemination, and security of NASA public affairs audiovisual resources as required by the governing provisions of OMB Circular A-130.

c. The Center Public Affairs Directors or equivalent positions are responsible for the following:

- (1) Overseeing all public affairs audiovisual products and services at their respective installations.
- (2) Proposing an effective and practical system for review, approval, and monitoring of audiovisual products and services within their respective installations.
- (3) Appointing an Audiovisual or Public Information Specialist as the installation focal point for coordinating all audiovisual activities with the News and Multimedia Division and the appropriate Public Affairs Officer at NASA Headquarters.
- (4) More specifically:
 - (a) All NASA Centers will obtain high-quality film or video documentation of all ongoing programmatic activities.
 - (b) All NASA Centers will participate in the Public Affairs live-shot program, arranging and placing into suitable media outlets live television interviews with appropriate spokespersons on topical issues involving Center activities.
 - (c) All NASA Centers will participate in the Public Affairs videofile program, providing existing background footage as appropriate for the daily uplink package and researching and obtaining footage as requested.
 - (d) All NASA Centers will provide for the maintenance at the installation (or the transfer to the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) in conjunction with the appropriate NASA Records Officer) of film and videotape documentation of programmatic activities and make it available as appropriate to media and other requesters. All correspondence with NARA should be through the NASA Records Officer or the NASA Center Records Manager.
 - (e) All NASA Centers will submit one copy (i.e., Sony Beta, a motion picture release print, DVD, or digital equivalent) of each audiovisual production to the appropriate element of the Headquarters News and Multimedia Division.
 - (f) Upon request of the Headquarters News and Multimedia Division or NARA, through the NASA Records Officer, the initiating installation will provide all materials necessary to NARA for the reproduction and distribution of selected NASA productions.
